StrucSure Home Warranty Names Christopher Macaulay President
Building Industry Veteran and Legal Expert to Oversee Daily Operations

DENVER – March 18, 2010 – StrucSure Home Warranty, one of the major providers in the home warranty industry has named Christopher T. Macaulay company President. StrucSure founder Jerry Thompson has assumed the role as company Chief Executive Officer.

As a Colorado licensed attorney, Macaulay brings 25 years of legal and homebuilding industry experience to StrucSure Home Warranty, having represented homeowners and builders, developers and contractors in construction defect disputes. He has litigated and arbitrated more than 50 cases involving homeowners, builders, insurance companies and warranty companies. Macaulay is licensed in all Colorado State and Federal courts, the 10th Circuit Court of Appeals and the United States Supreme Court.

Prior to joining StrucSure, Macaulay served as General Counsel and Vice President of Human Resources for Source One Management, a Denver-based national outsourcing and contract management firm. While with Source One, Macaulay oversaw and provided counsel on all corporate legal matters. Macaulay was also a founding member of the law firm Cortez Macaulay Bernhardt & Sheutze, LLC, where he focused on civil and commercial litigation, and business law.

“Chris understands the home building process and all of the complexities and dynamics of the business,” said StrucSure CEO Jerry Thompson. “His legal expertise, industry knowledge and advocacy for both builders and consumers will be a tremendous asset to StrucSure and its partners.”

“I’m excited to join StrucSure, especially now,” said Macaulay. “StrucSure fills a need in this market by easing the burden for the homebuilding community, while offering peace-of-mind to homeowners. I look forward to being part of this organization and to further positioning StrucSure as the leading provider of home warranties.”
